The punch bowl was presided over by Mrs. Mark Lillard, and the Misses Louise Sullivan of Lorne, Leary and Alice Wall. Music was rendered by a stringed orchestra stationed in the ante-hall.

Those assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith of Franklin, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left last night for southern California, where they will remain about three weeks. After Oct. 15 they will be at home in Frisco, Utah. The bride's traveling gown was a handsome gray cloth, with hat and gloves to match.

The wedding of Miss Lucile Snow and Chester R. Grimmer took place at noon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. H. Shaver on East South Temple street. The ceremony, which was performed by Judge W. M. McCarthy, was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents. In the evening a large reception was given to about 100 guests at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Christensen. A color scheme of red was carried out in the dining room decorations, a set of bank of red asters gracing the center of the dining table, which was lighted with red-shaded candelabra.

The library and parlor were beautifully decorated in pink and white roses, and with ropes of smilax, which extended from the chandeliers to the corners of the rooms. The bride sat in the parlor under a wedding veil formed of the pink and white roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edna Snow, as bridesmaid, while Arthur Jennings acted as best man. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe mul, trimmed in lace and insertion, and Miss Edna Snow was attired in a white silk gown. The bride's bouquet was of white roses, while the bridesmaid carried a shower cluster of pink roses in shower effect.

A buffet supper was served to the guests, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. J. C. Snow and Mrs. H. H. Irwin. Music was furnished during the evening by a stringed orchestra, and a number of delightful vocal selections were rendered by T. S. Ashworth. Following a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Grimmer will be at home at 660 Marquette avenue. The bride wore a handsome going-away gown of royal blue broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match.

In the evening a reception to about 200 guests was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Felt, in North Main street. Palms and ferns were effectively combined with a profusion of white asters in carrying out a color scheme of green and white in the parlor decorations, while pink was the color chosen for the dining room. A drawwork cloth over pink satin covered the dining table, on which rested a centerpiece of pink and white flowers.

A silver candelabra holding pink-shaded lights was placed at either end of the table, which was presided over by Mrs. J. W. Timpson. A number of young girls in dainty evening gowns assisted in the receiving, among them being the Misses Vida Fox, Geneva Felt, Louise Hagman, Gwendolyn Knowlton, Dorothy Dwyer and Nellie Nicholson. Smith and Miss Naomi Felt, while Clifford Foster, a brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The bride's gown was hand-embroidered white Duchesse satin, made in train in Empire effect, with trimmings of real lace. Mrs. Smith wore a gown of pale blue moire silk, and Miss Naomi Felt wore pale blue tissue over blue silk. The bride's bouquet was a shower effect of white white roses, while her attendants carried clusters of white carnations. After Oct. 15 Mr. and Mrs. Foster will be at home at 230 North West Temple.

Health and Beauty Talks

BY MRS. MAE MARTIN.

Sally Ann: Hot baths are weakening and should not be prolonged beyond a few minutes.

Alice: You say that your sweetheart is drifting from you to go with a more attractive girl. Can you blame him when you confess that you have neglected to take proper care of your complexion? Try this if you want to win him back again: Get from your drugist 4 ounces of permanganate, put in a half-pint of hot water and add 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. This makes a complexion beautifier that clears and whitens the skin without the use of powder. Apply to face, forehead, neck and throat lightly until dry. This surmounts lotion is just fine for removal of pimples, cold sores, tan and freckles. It gives soft and oily skin a pink and youthful appearance.

V. D.: The best tonic I know for purifying the blood, arousing the liver and restoring lost appetite is made by dissolving an ounce of karsene and a half-teaspoonful of sugar in a half-pint of alcohol, then adding enough boiling water to make a full quart of tonic. Take 1 tablespoonful five minutes before each meal and before retiring and you will strengthen and build up your entire system, while relieving you of dullness, languidness, liver blotches and pimples. It keeps the blood in excellent condition during winter.
